

First Bank of Highland Park

For the month of February, College Bound Opportunities (CBO) was featured in an exhibit on the Ruth Fell Wander Community Art Wall in FBHP. First Bank of Highland Park and CBO invited members of the community to stop by the bank and learn more about the programs provided to under-resourced students including ACT Prep classes, assistance with financial aid and college applications, laptops, financial assistance, and one-to-one mentor relationships.