

First Bank of Highland Park

May 2014

First Bank of Highland Park invited the community to stop by the bank's lobby throughout May to view the beautiful East Asian brush paintings created by local artists from Sumi-e Midwest. A nonprofit educational organization providing a cultural bridge between East and West, Sumi-e Midwest is dedicated to fostering and encouraging an appreciation of the great joy and culture of East Asian brush painting.